

A Hand Book on
Guide to Web Consultancy Services

TABLE OF CONTENT

Best Web Consultancy	3
Leading Web Promotion Company	5
Online Marketing Consultants.....	7
Mosaic a Branding Consultant	9
Best Online Marketing Agency.....	11
Best Online Advertising Agency.....	13
Improve Your Search Engine Visibility	15

Best Web Consultancy

Whatever maybe your business, having a website is very important to reach your targeted customers. By days more and more people are depending on the internet for buying and selling. You may be a traditional businessman dealing in direct offline transactions, but by having your website you will be available to your customers and clients 24 hours in a day and 7 days in a week. You will get your customers' queries and feedbacks very easily which will be cost-effective. You will increase your visibility and will have more sales and transactions.

If you do not have any website of your own and you intend to have one, you can consult Mosaic Services for it. It offers authentic web consultancy services which will definitely serve your purpose in every way. Mosaic provides answer to all your web-related queries from web designing and development to search engine optimization and the results you want to have after having your website. Mosaic has years of rich experience in the field. It provides advice to its clients after thorough study of the market and the ongoing trend.

Mosaic is one of the best online marketing consultants. Well-adept in strategies required for effective marketing, Mosaic will guide you in planning your product positioning and deciding strategies for reaching the targeted customers. Go for the web consultancy services from Mosaic, you will get tips on marketing your products and you can be an effective businessperson with more sales and profits.

Besides, Mosaic is one of the best branding consultants. Having established as an ad agency, it will tell you in the best possible way how to build your brand and become visible to all your clients and customers. Mosaic will identify the technical and marketing problems your business is facing and provide you the best solutions that strengthen your brand and sales. If you want to increase your sales and transaction with more business and profits, opt for Mosaic web consultancy services.

By availing web consultancy services from Mosaic, you will develop from the basic to the top till you are visible as a brand among your customers. Also, Mosaic services are effective due to its rich experience as an online marketing consultant. The team of experts working with the company is well-skilled in latest know-how. It will increase your competitive edge in the market in a minimum cost. Mosaic will build the trust for you among your customers. Visit www.mosaic-service.com for more information.

Leading Web Promotion Company

Mosaic Services, a leading web promotion company, offers a range of services on online promotions of websites including web designing and development, internet advertising and marketing and business consultancy and outsourcing. It helps businesses in branding, increase their visibility and sales online at a reasonable cost.

Mosaic's online marketing services can improve the search engine rankings of your websites giving a huge boost to your business. Its search engine optimization helps you get more traffic on the website and thereby increase in sales and transactions. This online marketing company India also offers email marketing in which your proposal of services is emailed to the potential customers.

In web design and development, Mosaic applies latest technology and proven skills. Mosaic's team of web developers is proficient in Java, Perl, PHP Programming, ASP and Coldfusion. Whatever maybe your business, the website developed by this web promotion company will be very much effective in getting more traffic and generating more sales and business.

Mosaic also works as an online advertising agency. It represents a number of good quality advertisers, and publishers can depend on this web promotion company for solution to generate traffic and sales. It uses the latest technology to manage, build and control ad campaigns which include complimentary account management and flexible ad format and designing selection. Mosaic uses banners, pop-up and all the formats of ad which are attractive and eye-catching.

In business consultancy and outsourcing, Mosaic offers the best of services. Mosaic as a web promotion company has a rich and extensive knowledge base. It provides advice on search engine services after detailed study of the market. Mosaic helps its clients in planning their product positioning and chalking out the promotional strategies required to reach the targeted customers. It gives priority to customer satisfaction. Its clients include many international organizations.

There are many benefits you can get if you avail the services from Mosaic. It will increase your brand and visibility. There will be more direct traffic from search engine, blogs and directories. It will improve your competitive edge in the market. Mosaic helps build customer trust and protect your customers' privacy. Your website will have global-reach by availing tips from Mosaic. The services it provides are reliable and cost effective and will reduce overall marketing costs. Visit www.mosaic-service.com for more information on this web promotion company.

Online Marketing Consultants

Internet is an important medium of communication employed by businesses and organizations. Companies use it to convey their message to their target customers. It is a very effective as well as cost effective medium to reach your customer anywhere in the world. Internet or online marketing is a mix of internet related activities that target the customer directly or indirectly. These activities include web casts, opt-in email campaigns, portal site media and newsletter sponsorships along with search engine optimization and marketing.

If you have an online business then adopting online marketing is not a matter of choice but a necessity. You then have to choose an online marketing company that provides efficient online marketing services. Select a company that is well versed with the nuances of online marketing concepts and is proficient in using them and has established its credentials as online marketing consultants.

Mosaic ITES services is one of the best online marketing consultants in India. This Online Marketing Company India offers many internet marketing services such as;

- Search Engine Marketing
With the help of Search engine marketing the company works at improving the search engine rankings of the client company. By improving the search engine rankings the company helps to boost your sales.
- Search Engine Optimization
Search engine optimization is an integral part of search engine marketing. It is a cost effective tool that helps in inviting targeted traffic to the client's website which indirectly & directly helps in increasing sales and generating business for the client company.

- Email Marketing

Email marketing is a powerful internet marketing tool that is very cost effective and can be used by small as well as big businesses. The response rate is around 3-15 % and is certainly a safe bet for businesses.

- Pay Per Click campaign

Pay per click campaigns are a very effective tool. In this type of campaign you have to bid on search terms and you are ranked according to bid price. You are charged when a customer clicks on your ad or listing.

Mosaic services, has emerged as an important player in the online marketing field and is counted amongst the best in the search engine optimization field. This online marketing agency has a diverse portfolio of web services. It also offers web design and development services, advertising and outsourcing services besides online marketing consultancy services.

We work towards achieving client objectives and client satisfaction is our credo. We offer a comprehensive package of services that include SEO, design & development, link building and PPC campaigns, so that you have the advantage of finding all the services at one place. Visit the site www.mosaic-service.com to know more about the various services offered b the site.

Mosaic a Branding Consultant

Branding is the sum total of a company's value-proposition including the products, advertising, positioning ,services and culture. The main purpose of branding is to increase brand awareness and brand recognition which leads to sales generation.

Branding is not restricted to creating a logo or a catchy line. Branding of a company or a product involves the whole look and feel of the brand. A brand should be recognized by its uniqueness and should have a character or an identity. The brand is successful, if it offers something different to the customer than what is already available to him. This applies to the design of the product, the experience it offers and the appeal of the brand. These Branding Concepts help in providing proper branding to a particular product or service.

The consumer's response to the brand measures the success of the brand. Branding is therefore a process that converts the products and companies in brands by effectively communicating the brand's essence to the target audience. It is an integral part of marketing strategy.

The main objectives of the branding process are firstly to deliver the message clearly, to confirm credibility, to connect emotionally with the target audience. It should instigate the buyer towards positive buyer behavior and increase user loyalty. The branding should be safe, simple and unique.

After studying the importance of branding, you must have realized the importance of choosing the right branding consultant amongst the pool of branding consultants available and Mosaic is one such Branding Consultant.

Mosaic services offers branding solutions that are unique and make the brand stand out from the rest of the crowd. The effective and customized branding services tailor made for your product or services offered by the company help to develop your brand and helps in its growth. The branding aids in establishing your brand ahead of your competitors and building a solid foundation for the advertising and marketing efforts of the company.

Mosaic services also offers online marketing services such as web & technical consultancy, search engine optimization services employing the latest techniques. The company offers the latest LSI based SEO and DOM techniques for search engine optimization. The company also offers email marketing and pay per click campaigns to clients who wish to use these services. Visit the site www.mosaic-service.com to know in detail about the wide gamut of services offered by the site and avail the benefits.

Best Online Marketing Agency

Strategy, Planning and Long-sightedness, these are the three pillars on which Mosaic Services stands. Mosaic Services is an online marketing agency born with the dawn of internet. After making a thumping mark into the web design and development, we graduated to next level by entering into online marketing. With internet being a global power, online marketing too got the boom. This boom was a massive one as each and every company tried their level best to break into this. But "Actions speak louder than words", motivated with this quote Mosaic Services raised ahead of them all and soon became India's leading online marketing company. Strategically located in Delhi India, we usually cater the clients sited across the seas. And time has never been the hindrance for us as we work round the clock. This is the reason why Mosaic is also known 24x7 Online Marketing Agency.

We made groundbreaking accomplishments in the field of online marketing and emerged as the most distinguished online marketing agency. In clear words, we redefined the online marketing. Mosaic Services understands that your website is your identity and generates business for you, that's why we online marketing consultants make it more lucrative. Thinking from your point of view and understanding we carefully devise a plan which suits your needs and requirements. Our success in online marketing has been garlanded by the projects we bagged due to our stringent and foolproof planning and majority of the projects won are of overseas clients.

Mosaic services walks hand in hand with the time and changing technology, that's why we make sure that you are always valued for money. Our efficient teams of marketing professionals keep a close look on the changing trends in online marketing which enable us to introduce new and improved methods, and the latest one is the introduction of direct marketing services. Direct marketing services helps your site to establish authority by one way theme links, increasing web popularity and traffic. After setting high standards in the online marketing we confidently advanced into the online marketing consultants. We are known for giving authentic advice on online marketing and this has been made only possible because of our extensive knowledge base, thorough research-work, and years of experience and correct assortment of professionals.

Our hard working and continuously striving for the best marketing professionals, have delivered hands-on value additions in forms of good keyword rankings. Thus if you want to bloom in the internet business but don't know from where to begin with, then simply contact India's best online marketing company that's Mosaic Services. As companies come and go but we are here to stay.

Best Online Advertising Agency

Do you have a powerful business, attractive services, cent percent customer satisfaction but don't have that required punch to boost your business. Well, put your fear to rest since Mosaic Services is here for you. With the advent of the internet, various promotional methods have popped up that not only boost your business but also give it the required punch. Mosaic Services is a one stop shop for all your business and promotional needs as we have our expert professionals working in the field of online marketing and providing your business that extra punch over your competitors. Now internet marketing and online advertising go hand in hand and provide a solid base to your business. When online advertising came into being it was limited to a few methods such as sending e-mailers, newsletters, e-brochures etc. But now strategy is changing with time and this has been adopted by Mosaic turning it into a full service online advertising agency providing a wide range of Internet advertising services & strategies for the betterment of your online business.

We have different strategies and plans for different companies, that too depending upon their size and needs. Being tagged as an internet advertising company we are able to allow your website to carry out advertising online, targeting not only the worldwide web but any specific country too. All that is required is payment of a reasonable amount and we help you get a better deal through online advertising. In short you will be on the profitable end and your returns are going to be huge. Online advertising mainly stands on two pillars that are concrete planning and foolproof strategy. Strategy can be long term or short term as this entirely depends upon your business needs and requirements. Our marketing and advertising professionals carefully chalk out the strategy after studying your business and its reach.

Mosaic knows and understands that what might be good for someone may not be fruitful for the other and thus, before crafting any online advertising campaign we analyze your business and its current status. That's why within a short span of time we have gained the status of being one of the foremost online marketing consultants. Mosaic with its online adverts have boosted many a company to the forefront and is currently making path breaking progress in interactive marketing and online advertising specializing in internet marketing consulting.

Improve Your Search Engine Visibility

Internet users are using search engines for everything they want to know on the net. Because of that, search engines are playing vital role in internet branding strategies. And if you want to make your brand visible among your targeted customers and have more traffic, sales and transactions, you need to upgrade your search engine ranking by applying the best practices in search engine optimization (SEO).

Providing services in the SEO and internet branding strategies is Mosaic Services, a leading company offering services in web design and development, internet branding, advertising and marketing. Mosaic uses the best practices in search engine optimization. You should understand that there are no set rules for SEO and consultants usually play with some elements like text, tags, internal linking and external linking for website and brand promotion. And the success of SEO for a website depends on how good the consultant is. Mosaic offers the latest Latent Semantic Indexing (LSI)-based search engine marketing and optimization services. It also applies dashboard optimization matrix (DOM) technique in SEO campaign for websites.

Besides, Mosaic is one of the leading branding consultants. It has rich experience in internet branding strategies. By availing services from Mosaic, your brand will get definite visibility and you will have more sales and transactions. Its team of experts studies the marketing trend and takes individual approach for the promotion of your brand through search engine marketing and optimization services.

Mosaic also offers high quality and search engine-friendly website design services. It uses the latest technology and software like Perl, Java, PHP Programming, ASP and Coldfusion for website design and development. The websites developed by Mosaic are very much effective in getting traffic and generate more sales and transactions. Mosaic uses the latest technology to manage, build and control ad campaigns applied in its internet branding strategies.

The company is sure to increase your brand's visibility and help in generating more traffic and their conversion into sales. There will be more direct traffic and improve your competitive edge in the market. Your website will have global-reach by getting advice from Mosaic.

Mosaic gives advice to its clients after research. The services offered by Mosaic are authentic and cost effective. You will decrease the over-all cost of your company by availing services from Mosaic. Visit www.mosaic-service.com for more information on branding concepts and other marketing strategies.